

Language required in order lifting stay to proceed against debtor's insurance company.

The automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. section 362(a) is hereby terminated with respect to the right of [the creditor] to proceed against the Debtor, in the pending state court proceeding or in any other appropriate court proceeding. While [the creditor] does not release the Debtor from liability in any pending or future court proceeding, it will not seek to collect from it any damages resulting from the above-described matter, and [the creditor] waives any right to collect any such damages from the Debtor itself. [The creditor] will limit its recovery, if any, in any pending or future court action to the coverage provided it by either its or the Debtor=s insurance companies. Any damages awarded in any pending or future court action will be payable by and out of any insurance coverage provided by its or the Debtor=s insurance companies. Upon payment of any judgment against the Debtor, either in full or up to the limits of coverage afforded by these insurance companies, [the creditor] will promptly execute a satisfaction of judgment with respect to the judgment, if any, obtained by it against the Debtor in any such pending or future court action.
